Exodus 24:7-8

Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it aloud to the people. Again they all responded, "We will do everything the Lord has commanded. We will obey."

⁸ Then Moses took the blood from the basins and splattered it over the people, declaring, "Look, this blood confirms the covenant the Lord has made with you in giving you these instructions."

Summary of Old Covenant: Justice

Jeremiah 31:31-34

"The day is coming," says the Lord, "when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and Judah. ³² This covenant will not be like the one I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand and brought them out of the land of Egypt. They broke that covenant, though I loved them as a husband loves his wife," says the Lord.

³³ "But this is the new covenant I will make with the people of Israel on that day," says the Lord. "I will put my instructions deep within them, and I will write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. ... "And I will forgive their wickedness, and I will never again remember their sins."

Luke 22:20

After supper he took another cup of wine and said, "This cup is the new covenant between God and his people-an agreement confirmed with my blood, which is poured out as a sacrifice for you.

John 3:16-17

For God loved the world so much that he gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷ God sent his Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through him.

Romans 5:8

But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners.

1 John 4:10

This is real love-not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins.

Summary of New Covenant: Love

Where do I need to replace Justice with Love?

1 Peter 4:8

Most important of all, continue to show deep love for each other, for love covers a multitude of sins.
